

Roosevelt Hall of Fame

Lorna Landvik

Class of 1972

- Wrote ten novels, including best seller Patty Jane's House of Curl.
- Performed standup comedy and improvisational theater in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Minneapolis (Dudley Riggs Brave New Workshop).
- Acted most recently in a one-woman, all-improvised show called, Party in the Rec Room.
- Awarded "Minnesota Favorite Author Award" by Minnesota Women's Press in 2001.
- Awarded "Favorite Fiction Writer" by Minnesota Arts and Humanities Council (2003).
- Earned selection of several of her books for Random House Reader's Circle, dedicated to publishing the very best books for book groups.
- Participated in the one-year trek in the cross-country Great Peace March for Global Nuclear Disarmament.

Inducted September 27, 2014