

Roosevelt Hall of Fame

Gregory K. Larson

Class of 1957

University of Minnesota, B.S. Business Administration

- Played center, and was captain of U of M Big Ten Champion football team (1960-61).
- Played in 1961 Rose Bowl Game against Washington State.
- Drafted by the NFL New York Giants, started in every game for thirteen seasons; played in all but three games (knee injury).
- Started at three different positions -- guard, tackle and center -- in three NFL championship games.
- Served as offensive captain of the Giants from 1968 to 1973.
- Snapped for punts, field goals, and extra points also. Never had a bad snap.
- Awarded NFL All-Pro in 1966, and played in NFL Pro-Bowl in 1967; Section 5 Fan Club 1970 (given to one player per year at the NY Giant's stadium).
- Inducted into U of M "M" Club Hall of Fame (2010).
- Owned "Greg Larson Sporting Goods," for 40 years in Brainerd, MN.
- Served as president of the Brainerd Sports Booster Club.

Inducted September 27, 2014