

Roosevelt Hall of Fame

Dr. Stanley Paulson,
Ph.D., J.D.

Class of 1959

*University of Minnesota, B.A. and M. A. Philosophy
University of Wisconsin - Madison, Ph.D. Philosophy
Harvard University Law School, J.D.*

- Recognized internationally as authority in legal philosophy; earned reputation for meticulous and original scholarship.
- Appointed professor of philosophy and law at Washington University, St. Louis, MO. Fills an endowed chair, the William Gardner Hammond Professorship.
- Awarded Faculty Teaching Award by the faculty and students of Washington University.
- Wrote over 200 publications in English and German, translated into nine other languages.
- Lectured at 80 universities on five continents.
- Awarded honorary doctorates from University of Kiel (Germany), and University of Uppsala (Sweden).
- Served in many guest professorships all over the world.
- Awarded fellowships and other awards from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Rockefeller Foundation, the German Max Planck Society, and others.

Inducted September 27, 2014