

Roosevelt Hall of Fame

Attended the University of Minnesota

Reed Larson

Class of 1974

- Enjoyed a 13-year NHL hockey career as one of the stellar defenseman in the league
- Molded into the player he was by legendary coach Herb Brooks at the University of Minnesota
- Played in NCAA all-tournament hockey team in 1975
- Broke into the NHL with the Detroit Red Wings. Was the runner-up for the Calder Trophy, as the league's top rookie. Captained the Red Wings
- Played the remainder of his career with the Boston Bruins, Edmonton Oilers, New York Islanders, and Buffalo Sabres
- Played and coached in Italy for four years
- Recorded five 20-goal seasons, and eight 60-point campaigns
- Scored 200 career goals, the first American to do so and sixth defenseman in NHL history to do so
- Played in the NHL All-Star Games of 1978, 1980 and 1981
- Elected to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 1996
- Played in Oldtimers Charity Hockey games, and in the Heroes of Hockey games at NHL All-Star weekends

Inducted September 17, 2016